Criminal Law Section Telling Your New Mexico Legal Story and Getting it Published

Do you have a story that needs telling? The real questions are, "How do you tell your story? How do you get it published and produced and follow the rules of ethical procedure? How do you avoid being sued?" Jonathan Miller has practiced law in New Mexico since 1988 and has appeared in court (as a lawyer) in every judicial district. He is the author of 12 books, including the upcoming Luna Law: A Rattlesnake Lawyer novel. Miller will discuss how to get published in today's changing environment and how to protect oneself from the pitfalls. At the end, Miller will discuss attendees' potential ideas if time permits. Join him from 1:30-2:30 p.m., June 24, at the State Bar Center and by teleconference. Contact Breanna Henley at bhenley@nmbar.org to obtain teleconference information and to R.S.V.P. To submit a question for Miller in advance, visit www.nmbar.org/CriminalLaw. Information given during this event is solely the opinion of the presenter.
